Dear Mr Cullin:-

I had a call on the phone, today from Mr Burckwell (antique dealer) who has in his possession, an old cup. He he said it was owned by a, Mrs William Walker (Anne Ann) daughter of Judith Cullin, who married, Capt James Hicks of Brunswick Co, Va. according to the records I have of the Cullin family & the one I sent you, she was the daughter of John Cullin of Port Bell, King & Queen Co Va & Fanny Expe (am I not right) he says he has found the will, & her father is Isaac

Cedric, and they are not related to this family, I cannot understand, why me to make such a mistake, & you not believe that they did - He phoned me about a year ago, & when I told him the date of his birth, he said, it was about a hundred years too early, er, when he phoned today, he seemed to have another line, but my data, did not seem to fit in (I sent him) then he called again, & said, that you had sent him lots of data, was it what I sent you? he said your Grandfather was Imit Cedric, & a shape & the one I have from was a name, but that was not the one he wanted, in other words, he intimated, he was going to link this antique, up with, Royalty - Lord Drummond, I know that Isaac, is a branch of this <sup>same</sup> family, why should they say that Judith is John Cedric's daughter, if she is not. Please do not mention to him that, I have heard from you, or written to you in regard to this, but I would like to know the real story about Judith's father - Thanking you in advance -

Sincerely
Marston B. Cedric
